We are delighted to announce that we have been nominated for an EVIE award! The Electric Vehicle Innovation & Excellence (EVIE) Awards will be held October 5th in London ahead of the EV World Congress. The awards are designed to shine a light on innovation and excellence in the emerging EV sector.

We're finalists for the DiversitEV award which recognises companies who have gone above and beyond to promote diversity in the workplace. The Electric Miles team are building the future of smart charging and we're proud to be recognised in this manner.

Good luck to all the other finalists and we're looking forward to seeing everyone at the awards ceremony.
