The EV market is booming, but competition is fierce. Every installer is chasing the same contracts. The question is: how do you stand out?

The shift

Clients don't just want chargers anymore; they want data. Energy use, uptime, performance and proof they're getting value.

The insight edge

Installers using emPACT can:

- Show clients real uptime data
- Optimise load and energy use
- Detect and fix faults instantly
- Scale to multiple sites from one dashboard

Imagine showing a potential customer that your last install achieved 99.8% uptime and 25% energy savings.

Stay ahead of the curve

Smart data turns good installers into trusted experts. It's what separates the professionals from the pack.

Become an Electric Miles certified Installer partner
